Town of Aurora & Village of East Aurora, New York

Historian's Office Re-Opening Oct. 21

The archives of the Aurora Town Historian's Office and the Aurora History Museum will re-open Wednesday, Oct. 21.

The re-opening comes following the re-location of the Historian's Office and historical exhibits to the new Aurora Municipal Center at 575 Oakwood Avenue.

The Historian's Office is open for research Wednesdays and Thursdays, 1-4 p.m., and by appointment.

Due to Covid-19 precautions, appointments are highly recommended even on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons by calling 716-652-7944 or emailing historian@townofaurora.com.

As always, requests for information may be sent to historian@townofaurora.com.

We thank the taxpayers and researchers for their patience as we took this time to ensure the safe and efficient packing, relocation and unpacking of the museum artifacts and the documents in the archives.
